

How to host a children's book club discussion for The Incurrible Children of Ashton Place by Maryrose Wood

Step 1: Get your copy of the book at the library or right here on Amazon.

Step 2: Print the following sheet and then cut each question into a separate strip of paper.

Step 3: Place the strips in a bowl or jar and let your readers take turns pulling a question for discussion!

Step 4: Sign up for more FREE fun party ideas for you and the kids in the Peanut Blossom newsletter. Get your copy right here.

For more information, see the full post at:

<https://www.peanutblossom.com/blog/incorrible-children-ashton-place/>

Who is your favorite character and why?

How are the kids in the story like you or not like you?

Do you like animals? Would you rather babysit animals or children, why?

Do you know the origin of your name? Who picked it for you and why?

Have you ever moved to a new home or school before? How did you feel on your first day there?

What would be the hardest part about learning to behave like a child if you thought you were a wolf?

What would be the best part about living with wolves in a forest?

Have you ever taken dance lessons? Do you think you could learn the schottische (Highland Scottish)?

Compare Penelope Lumley to another nanny or governess you might know. How are they the same or different? (Mary Poppins, Nanny McFee, etc.)

For more information, see the full post at:

<https://www.peanutblossom.com/blog/incorrigible-children-ashton-place/>