

PEANUT BLOSSOM BOOK CLUB KIT:

Romanov

BY NADINE BRANDES

Question 1:

What did you know of the Romanov family before this book? Had you seen any popular movies or tv shows on the subject?

Question 2:

Do you have any desire to travel and visit Russia? Have you already been? Where?

Question 3:

The Romanov family motto was "We are Romanovs. The bond of our hearts spans miles, memory, and time." Does your family have a motto? What would it be?

Question 4:

Mamma confesses a secret to Nastya about how far she went to help Alexei. What is the craziest thing you've done to protect your own children?

Question 5:

The Romanov family lives for their time out in the garden during exile and suffer greatly when that time is reduced. What would be the worst punishment for you in their situation?

Question 6:

Forgiveness of deep betrayals is a prominent theme in the book. Are you a "forgive and forgetter" or do you struggle with it?

Question 7:

How would you have written the ending of this book? Where do you think the characters are now?